As the holidays approach, let us be thankful for the gifts God has blessed us with. We must also remember that there are those less fortunate. Please remember that we depend on donations to keep our food pantry stocked so we may be available to fill the needs of those in our community. The holiday season is a time when our food pantry is hardest hit. All donations will be greatly appreciated.

Volunteers are needed on Saturday, November 30, to help decorate the church and social hall for Christmas. We need able-bodied individuals with ladders to help get down, carry, and hang heavy items. If you are willing to help out, please be here at 1:00 p.m.
